

Moe Cassalery

Aug. 15, 1923 — April 9, 2002

Sequim native Moe Cassalery died in Port Angeles at the age of 78.

He was born in Sequim to Frank W. and Ethel M. (Gunn) Cassalery. He graduated from Sequim High School in 1942 and won a sports scholarship to Bellingham College.

He returned to Sequim, where he spent his life as a dairy farmer.

He was a member of the Sequim Elks Lodge and enjoyed fishing, hunting and all sports.

He married Grace Norris on May 25, 1973, in Shelton. She survives, along with sons ~~Craig Cassalery of Bering, Ore.~~ and Jerry Cassalery of Sequim; daughters Paula Nelson of Sequim, Shirley Christensen of Maui, Hawaii, and Sheri Hill of Port Angeles; a brother, Ray Cassalery of Sequim; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services: None. Sequim Valley Chapel is in charge.

Memorials: The Elks Club Coats for Kids Program, 143 Port Williams Road, Sequim, WA 98382; Clallam County Sheriff's Department Search & Rescue Posse, attn: Capt. Steve Snover, P.O. Box 863, Port Angeles, WA 98362; or Sequim Police Department, attn: Chief Nelson, 609 W. Washington St., Suite 16, Sequim, WA 98382.

D
di
G
C
g
I