

OBITUARIES

She married James Fickas on November 22, 1947 at Spokane. Mrs. Fickas was a school librarian at Wishram until she retired and moved to Sequim in 1986.

She belonged to the Lady Elks, Alpha Chi Omega Sorority and was active at the Sequim Aquatic Recreation Center for the past few years.

In addition to her husband at the family home, Mrs. Fickas is survived by her father and stepmother, Fred and Marguerite Allen of Sequim; a son, James Fickas, of Sequim; a daughter, Catherine Rawlins of Carson, Wash. and three grandchildren.

John R. Andrew

A private family service will be held at a later date for John Robert Andrew, who died at Port Angeles on May 2, 1993 at the age of 82.

Mr. Andrew was born June 27, 1910 at Seattle to Arthur Edwin and Ilau Maude Rathvon Andrew. He graduated from high school at Seattle in 1928 and graduated from Washington State University in 1934.

He married Margaret Kelley on December 19, 1953 at Post Falls, Idaho.

Mr. Andrew was a mechanical engineer. He worked on ships sailing between Panama and Alaska from 1928-1935 and designed engines for Johnson Marine until 1941 when he went to work for The Boeing Co. He retired and moved to the Blyn area in 1971.

He was a member of Rhododendron Grange 1137, Pomona Grange 35 and a life member of the Washington State Grange. He enjoyed sailing.

In addition to his wife at the family home, Mr. Andrew is survived by a son, Rex Andrew of Sydney, B.C.; a niece and a nephew.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the Rhododendron Grange Scholarship Fund, c/o Ruth Hodis, 133-B Pierce Road, Sequim, 98382.

The Olympic Cremation Association at Mount Angeles Memorial Park was in charge of arrangements.