at Olympic Memorial Hospital in Port Angeles.

He was born on March 25, 1910 in Rife, Wash. to Samuel M. and Maggie A. (Collins) Wyatt.

Mr. Wyatt spent most of his younger days in Alaska. He married Grace L. Starr in Alaska on October 13, 1935. He worked several years as a commercial fisherman. Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt moved to the Sequim area in 1947.

He is survived by his wife, Grace of Sequim; three sons, Russell Wyatt of Sequim, Frank Wyatt of Seattle and Emery Wyatt of Ketchikan, Alaska; two daughters, Martha Hugli of Sequim and Kay Wyatt of Port Angeles; five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Cremation was under the direction of Sequim Valley Chapel.

Ruth R. Brumbaugh

A celebration of the life of Ruth Redmond Brumbaugh will be held at 1 p.m. at the Gardiner Community Center on Saturday, August 26. The Rhododendron Grange will host the potluck dinner. (Ruth Hodis, 683-6223) The celebration will be preceded by a brief grange memorial service.

Mrs. Brumbaugh died Tuesday, August

15, 1989 at her home in Sequim. She was born April 24, 1909, in Snohomish. She was the oldest of seven brothers and sisters. After graduation from the University of Washington with a bachelor of science degree in home economics and a master's degree in education, she began a career that spanned 40 years.

In 1951 she married Stan Brumbaugh in Wenatchee.

After retirement in 1973, she and Stan moved to the Olympic Peninsula, first to Diamond Point and then to Sequim. A seventh-degree granger, she was active in the Rhododendron and Pomona Granges and the Women's Circle of the Sequim Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Stan; four daughters, Laura, Jewel, Polly and Lou Ellen; a son, Neil; two sisters, Alice Mills of Snohomish and Velma Fulton of Brunswick, Maine; a brother Lloyd Redmond of Whidbey Island; 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by three brothers.

Cremation was under the direction of the Sequim Valley Chapel and burial was in the Redmond family plot in Snohomish. At Mrs. Brumbaugh's request, memorial donations are suggested to the Sequim Senior Center Building fund, P.O. Box 482, Sequim.
