

Victoria B. Cassalery

Victoria B. Cassalery, 67, of Sequim, died Feb. 27 in Port Angeles.

Mrs. Cassalery was born April 6, 1921, in Twin Falls, Idaho, the daughter of Quincy and Daisy May Collins Miller. The family moved to Port Townsend when she was 8 years old, and she graduated from Port Townsend High School.

During World War II, Mrs. Cassalery worked on Indian Island as an equipment operator. In 1946 she moved to Discovery Bay and worked for Crown Zellerbach until she retired in 1976. She moved to Sequim in 1986.

She was active in the Sequim VFW Auxiliary and the American Legion

Auxiliary.

She is survived by three sons, Ron Shields of Quilcene, Ken Oliver of Ferndale, and Frank Cassalery of Marysville; a brother, Joe A. Miller of Spokane; 13 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son, Marvin Shields in 1965; and a sister, Marge Barnes in 1988.

Funeral services are scheduled for noon, Thursday, March 2, at Sequim Valley Chapel and will be officiated by the Sequim VFW Auxiliary. Interment will be at the Gardiner Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Sequim VFW Auxiliary.

Victoria B. Cassalery

A funeral service for Victoria B. Cassalery, 67, of Sequim will be held at noon Thursday, March 2, 1989 at Sequim Valley Chapel. The Sequim VFW auxiliary will officiate. Interment will follow at the Gardiner Cemetery.

Mrs. Cassalery died February 27, 1989 in Port Angeles. She was born April 16, 1921 in Twin Falls, Idaho to Quincy and Daisy May (Collins) Miller. When she was eight years old, the family moved to Port Townsend where she attended school and graduated from high school. She worked at Indian Island during World War II as an equipment operator. In 1946 she moved to Discovery Bay, and lived there while working for Crown Zellerbach. She retired in 1976, and in 1986 she moved to Sequim.

Mrs. Cassalery was an active member of the Sequim VFW Auxiliary as well as a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include three sons; Ron Shields of Quilcene, Ken Oliver of Ferndale and Frank Cassalery of Marysville; one brother Joe Miller of Spokane, 13 grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a son, Marvin Shields who died in 1965 and a sister, Marge Barnes in 1988.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sequim VFW Auxiliary, P.O. Box 1516, Sequim, 98382.