

Deaths and Funerals

Eleanor Fletcher

April 18, 1914 — March 2, 2006

Sequim resident Eleanor Fletcher died in the final stages of Alzheimer's disease in Port Angeles Care Center. She was 91.

She married Ivan L. Fletcher in Wichita, Kan. He died in November 1987.

Mrs. Fletcher's, whose specialty was elementary education, was a librarian in the Wichita (Kan.) School District.

In addition to enjoying nature, she liked to sing.

She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church and Rhododendron Grange.

Mrs. Fletcher is survived by son George Terrell of Frederick, Md.; stepdaughter Nina Fletcher Cross of Seattle; sisters Abby Spotskey of Flagstaff, Ariz., Amy Stephenson of Seattle and Colleen Terrell of Atlanta; and three grandchildren.

Services: To be w announced. Burial will be in g

Gardiner Cemetery.

Sequim Valley Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

w p
w hi