Pamela J. Hammon

April 4, 1951 — July 5, 2002

Pamela J. Hammon died of cancer at age 51 at her home in Sequim.

She was born in Yakima to Howard Lee and Marjorie (Kilgore) Meyer of Sequim.

Mrs. Hammon came to Sequim in 1981. She was an emergency medical technician with Olympic Ambulance and earlier owned and managed Burger Boys Restaurant and the Sequim Grill.

She enjoyed motor-home traveling with her husband, Robert D. Hammon, who she married in Seattle on Nov. 22, 1980. He died April 12, 1997.

Mrs. Hammon's survivors include her fiancé, Wayne Roberts, and son, Ben Cooper, both of Sequim; daughters Amber Burggarff of Seattle and Inez Calkins of Chugach, Alaska; brothers Jack Meyer of Wenatchee and Scott Meyer of Sequim; sisters Linda Steele of Kentucky and Renée Meyer of Sequim; and nine grandchildren.

Services: Private family graveside service in Gardiner Cemetery. Sequim Valley Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Memorials: Hospice of Clallam County, P.O. Box 2014, Port Angeles, WA 98362
