

MARJORIE C.
HUNT-ESTES

April 24, 1918
June 18, 2017

Marjorie C. Hunt-Estes, 99, went to be with the Lord on June 18, 2017, of natural causes at her home in Diamond Point.

Marjorie was born in Crete, Nebraska, on April 24, 1918, to James N. Chrisman and Maggie May Wild.

Marjorie married Harold G. Hunt on June 7, 1938, in Nebraska. Shortly after, they relocated to Los Angeles, California, and started their family. They had one son, Jerry.

In 1968, she and Harold retired and relocated to Diamond Point.

Harold passed away December 28, 1982.

Marjorie C. Estes

Marjorie met and married Joseph N. Estes on September 7, 1985, in Sequim. He passed August 9, 2004.

Marjorie was a homemaker. Though she did not work outside her home, she was extremely active within her community, church and especially with her family.

Marjorie's many interests included her work in Rhododendron Grange and Lady Elks. She loved bowling and was active in many leagues. She played cribbage almost daily, teaching generations of her family the game, as well as friends and neighbors. She was also well-known for her 13x9 lemon meringue pies.

Marjorie leaves behind her son, Jerry L. (Susan) Hunt of Spokane, Washington; her grandchildren, Sheri (George) Ehrlich of Spokane, Richard Hunt (Lisa Yeung) of Arcadia, California, and Dawn (Brian) Nielson of Las Vegas, Nevada; her great-grandchildren, Christopher (Nicole) Ehrlich of Spokane, Washington, Caitlin Nielson, Jacob Hunt-Lynn and Whitney Newton, all of Las Vegas, Nevada, and Makaila Hunt of Simi Valley, California; and three great-great grandchildren, with a fourth on the way.

Marjorie was preceded in death by her parents, her brother, two sisters and many cherished nieces and nephews.

There will be a celebration of life on Monday, June 26, 2017, at 1 p.m. at Gardiner Community Church, 1040 Old Gardiner Road, Sequim, with a reception immediately following her service at the Gardiner Community Center, 980 Old Gardiner Road, Sequim.

Memorial contributions may be made to the charity or organization of your choice in Marjorie's name.
