

Deaths and servi

Wilbur A. Johnson

At his request, there will be no service for Wilbur A. "Pete" Johnson, 83, of Sequim, who died Sunday, Aug. 13, 1989, at Olympic Health Care Center in Sequim.

Mr. Johnson was born May 5, 1906, in the Ballard section of Seattle to W. B. and Melinda Johnson. He was a member of the Laborers Union for more than 50 years. He also was a grange member for more than 30 years and master of Rhododendron Grange.

Survivors include his wife Elsie of Sequim and one stepdaughter, Patricia Barboe of Fall City, Wash.; one daughter, Betty Nagel of Olympia; two stepdaughters, Marie Ingram of California, and Elinor Rossiter of Missouri, daughters of Cora Cays, Wilbur's first wife, who died in 1969; one sister, Gert Atkinson of Sequim; and several grandchildren.