

Memorial services are planned for Meivin 'Opa' Nance

SEQUIM — Memorial services for Melvin "Opa" Nance, 79, of Sequim, are 5 p.m. Thursday in Gardiner Community Church. The Rev. Vern Kullowatz will officiate. Inurnment will be in Sequim View Cemetery. Mr. Nance died Monday, Aug. 12, 1996, at his home in Sunshine Acres.

Aug. 15

He was born Jan. 6, 1917, in Witchita, Kan., to Edgar E. and Anna Mary Hess Nance. He married Claudia Irene Loftis on April 30, 1949, in Glendale, Calif.

He was a graduate of the University of Southern California and employed by Lockheed Aircraft Co. for 36 years, retiring in 1973 as department manager for final aircraft inspection.

Mr. Nance moved to Sequim in 1979. He was a member of Gardiner Community Church and Rhododendron Grange.

Survivors include his wife; son

John of Salem, Ore.; daughter Bonnie Cahoon of Mount Shasta, Calif.; 10 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Brother Merle and sister Mildred House preceded him in death.

Memorials are suggested to Gardiner Community Church, 1040 Old Gardiner Road, Sequim, WA 98382; or Hospice of Clallam County, P.O. Box 2014, Port Angeles, WA 98362.

Drennan and Ford Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge.

etwater
Ann Washatko

ance ice ce Cahoon

ndren andchildren

Memorials may be directed to Gardiner Community Church or Hospice of Clallam County