

Deaths and services and Carmen Lang Ostermann. He was raised in Seattle and Portland, Ore., and graduated from Grant High School in Portland. He worked as an insurance adjuster from the mid 1930s until 1940, when he joined the National Guard. In 1941 he joined the U.S. Army, 41st Division, serving in the South Pacific until 1945. In 1948 he started working for the California Department of Motor Vehicles, retiring in 1970 as a hearing officer.

He married Jan Strom McHale Feb. 14, 1987, in Reno, Nev. They moved to Sequim in 1988.

Mr. Ostermann was a World War II Army veteran; life member of the Sequim VFW Post, Sequim Elks Lodge, Rhododendron Grange of Gardiner; Unity in the Olympics Church; Olympic Peninsula Ramblers; and Coachmen Evergreen Rovers.

Survivors include his wife Jane of Sequim; stepdaughter Marlo Chamberlain of Nevada; brother Thomas Osterman of Arizona; sister Anita Kniffin of California; and three grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 4414 Woodland Park North, Seattle, WA 98103 or Rhododendron Grange No. 1137, c/o Ruth Hodis, 133-B Pierce Road, Sequim, WA 98382 or a favorite charity.

Arrangements are by Sequim Valley Chapel. Cremation was by Mount Angeles Crematory.

William H. Ostermann

SEQUIM — Graveside inurnment services for William H. Ostermann, 81, of Sequim, will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Gardiner Cemetery with members of Rhododendron Grange officiating. He died Wednesday, April 8, 1992, in Port Angeles.

Mr. Ostermann was born Jan. 15, 1911, in San Mateo, Calif. to William