WARMAN*March 18, 1924
March 7, 2014

M. Jewel Warman passed away peacefully surrounded by family on March 7, 2014, a few days shy of her 90th birthday.

She was born in California on March 18, 1924, to William and Ella Wallace.

Jewel lived most of her childhood and early adulthood in Newport, Oregon, where she met her husband, Bob Warman. They moved in 1952 to Sequim, where they raised their three daughters.

Jewel, lovingly referred to as "Little Grandma," was part of the Gardiner Garden Club for many years, the bowling league and was very involved in her church.

She had a love for picking wild blackberries, and she was known for her famous pie crust and blackberry pie.

She loved to knit and crochet, made many quilts and had a witty, "sharp-as-a-tack" personality.

She drove the school bus for the Sequim School District for 20 years and drove for three generations of children.

She is survived by her three daughters, M. Jane (Jack) Badgley, Nancy (Stewart) Bettes and Roberta (Tom) Rowland; seven grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; one great-great granddaughter; and her sister Shirley.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bob "Little Papa" Warman, and her four sisters.

A service will be held in her honor on Saturday, June 28, 2014, at 1:30 p.m. at the Gardiner Community Center, 980 Gardiner Road in Gardiner.

A reception is to follow at the same location.

This will be a potluck to celebrate Jewel's life.
