

from Kimball High School in 1917. He joined the Army and served during World War I with the 353 Aero Squadron in France.

He married Helen Lois Medlar Sept. 3, 1920, in Cheyenne, Wyo. He played trumpet in a band, "Halfshots," associated with the American Legion Club "40 and 8." He had lived in Seattle from the early 1930s until 1987, when he moved to Sequim after the death of his wife.

Mr. Wilson was a member of the Sequim VFW, American Legion, University Post 11, Masonic Lodge of Kimball, Shrine Temple in Edmonds, and a Texaco retiree.

Survivors include two daughters, Irma Jean Johnston and Mary Jane Ostermann, both of Sequim; one brother, Frank Wilson of Lacey; six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. One daughter, Marguerite Hartwell, died in 1945.

Memorials are suggested to the Shrine Burn Center, c/o Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children, N. 820 Summit Blvd., Spokane, WA 99201, or a favorite charity.

Sequim Valley Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

in Hemet, Calif.

Roger C. Wilson

A funeral service for Roger C. "Bill" Wilson, 90, of Sequim, will be at 11 a.m. Friday at Purdy & Walters at Floral Hills Funeral Home, 409 Filbert Road, Lynnwood. Bothell Masonic Lodge will officiate. Interment will be at Floral Hills Cemetery. Visitation will be from 10 to 11 a.m. Friday at Purdy & Walters.

Mr. Wilson died Saturday, Oct. 14, 1989, in Sequim.

He was born Aug. 7, 1899, in Beattie, Kans., to Roy D. and Ella Brown Wilson. Mr. Wilson was raised in Kimball, Neb., and graduated